

January 31, 2013
NKSJ Holdings, Inc.

NKSJ Holdings received “Prime” status by German CSR Ratings Agency Oekom Research AG

NKSJ Holdings, Inc. (President: Kengo Sakurada) has been given the CSR rating of “Prime” status by German CSR rating agency Oekom Research AG (“Oekom”) in its biannual review of corporate sustainability activities.

1. Outline of Oekom’s CSR ratings

Oekom is a global rating agency that aims to promote sustainable investments. It appraises the achievements of companies using unique evaluation standards based on social and environmental perspectives. It announces ratings biannually.

The “Prime” rating is awarded to companies that are especially highly assessed by Oekom’s evaluation standards.

2. The recent rating

Oekom highly praised NKSJ Holding’s environmental management efforts, such as our initiatives and disclosure on CO2 emissions, climate change, and the environmental efficiency with which we use paper and other materials. Our Group will continue actively pursuing initiatives to address environmental issues and contribute to the creation of a sustainable society.

Please refer to official website for detailed information about our initiatives.

Official website: CSR Case Studies

<http://www.nksj-hd.com/en/csr/action/>